Questions?

Please read the technical information below. For questions regarding deadlines, available space, or payment, please contact Laurie Fitzpatrick (contact information above). Technical questions should be directed to Judy Robertson at the above e-mail address.

Ad Formats: We can accept either camera-ready copy or electronic formats as follows. Camera-ready hard copy—black ink on white paper, in the correct dimensions, to appear in the publication exactly as it looks on the paper.

Electronic formats:* High resolution PDFs, InDesign, Quark files (with fonts supplied), Illustrator (outline fonts) Resolution required: 300 dpi

What needs to be included with my files? Please include all supporting documents, including all of the artwork imported into your file. Include a copy of all typefaces used, including those used in the EPS files. You must include all screen and printer fonts!

What file format do I need to save my files? Save layouts created in Illustrator or Freehand as an EPS. Save Photoshop files as EPS files without dcs separations or TIFF files without compression—not RGB. Don't use PICTS or JPEGs.

Please also send us a hard copy of your layout. If we do not have anything to check against, we have no way of knowing if your ad is correct!
